

December 30, 2009

PRESS RELEASE

To Industry Members and Otis McAllister Military Sales Partners:

We are pleased to announce a change of management in our Military Sales Organization effective January 1, 2010.

Don Spilman, President and Co-founder of the Otis Military sales division will shift his primary focus to developing more business by working with current Manufacturers in direct base and field promotions as the Director of Business Development.

Don has had a distinguished and successful career managing the Military Sales Division for the past 13 years at Otis McAllister and over 20 years in sales and service to the Military Resale Industry worldwide.

Jimmy Bailey will assume the responsibility and position of Senior Executive Director managing the Otis McAllister Military Division. After seven years working with Don Spilman in developing Otis Military business globally, Jimmy has the keen experience and respect of all accounts represented by the firm.

Please join us in our Congratulations to Don and Jimmy for continued success in their transition of responsibilities of the growing Military business division at Otis.

Sincerely,

Royce A. Nicolaisen
C.E.O. / Chairman

Everett C. Golden, III
President / C.O.O.

Recipient of the U.S. President's
"E" Award for Export Excellence